JO 2024 Programme

Petra Schweinhardt

Petra Schweinhardt is the Head of the Department of Chiropractic Medicine at the Balgrist University Hospital and Professor of Chiropractic Medicine at the University of Zurich (UZH). She trained as an MD in Heidelberg, Germany, obtained a PhD at the University of Oxford, England and was a tenured professor at McGill University in Canada before transitioning to Switzerland. Here, she obtained her chiropractic degree at UZH and became Professor of Chiropractic Medicine in 2022.

Michael Vianin

Michael Vianin (MSc DC) - is a chiropractor with a Masters degree in Rehabilitation Sciences who has over twenty years of experience working with people who suffer from musculoskeletal pain. He specializes in the management of complex cases, including post-operative care. Michael also has extensive teaching experience in the rehabilitation of MSK disorders and in mentoring interns and residents.

Starting his career as a member of a multidisciplinary spinal pain team in Fribourg in Switzerland, Michael was also a Team Chiropractor with HC Fribourg-Gottron, a professional, Swiss ice hockey team, and engaged to lecture in Active Rehabilitation at Zurich Universitys Faculty of Medicine. Michael currently balances his roles as Team Chiropractor (HC Fribourg-Gottron), Staff Physician with Clinique Generale, Supervising Clinician with CHUV (University Hospital in Lausanne), and Chiropractic Physician at his own private practice in Fribourg.

Mathieu Saubade

Mathieu Saubade studied at the Free University of Brussels, Belgium to obtain his degree as medical doctor in 2008. He completed his postgraduate training in Switzerland obtaining his FMH specialist title in physical medicine and rehabilitation and his postgraduate specialist title in sports and exercise medicine in 2014. He works at the Swiss Olympic Medical Center of the University hospital of Lausanne since 2014, currently as attending physician; and since 2018, part-time at the department of health promotion and prevention at Unisanté (university center for primary care and public health in Lausanne). He is also the head physician of the men's Swiss national rugby team and co-president of the medical commission of the Swiss rugby federation. In addition to his clinical activities, he is involved in various research project management and teaching activities. Since 2018, he is doing a PhD in life sciences at the University of Lausanne, working on the effects of dehydration on the physiology of sweat and others biological parameters during exercise.
